

The "established business relationship" that the CBA is applying for an exemption on Indiana consumers is outrageous. If I wanted to do business with someone that was affiliated with (e.g., my bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) I would contact them directly. Please do not give in to the demands of the CBA. Thank you.